No Adverse Consequences

The submission of a good faith concern regarding Accounting Standards or compliance with the Code of Conduct or any other Company policy may be made by a director, officer, employee or contractor of the Company without fear of dismissal, disciplinary action or retaliation of any kind. However, if a reporting individual was involved in improper activity the individual may be appropriately disciplined even if he or she was the one who disclosed the matter to the Company.

The Company will not discharge, discipline, demote, suspend, threaten or in any manner discriminate against any director, officer, employee or contractor in the terms and conditions of employment or engagement (as applicable) based on any lawful actions of a director, officer, employee or contractor with respect to (i) good faith reporting of concerns or complaints regarding Accounting Standards, or otherwise specified in Section 806 of the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, (ii) compliance with the Company's Code of Conduct or other Company policies, or (iii) providing assistance to the Chair, the Audit Committee, management or any other person or group, including any governmental, regulatory or law enforcement body, investigating a concern.

Treatment of Submissions

Concerns will be reviewed as soon as possible by the Chair in the manner deemed to be appropriate based upon the nature and merits of the submission and with the assistance and direction of whomever the Chair thinks appropriate, which may include external legal counsel. Concerns involving Accounting Standards or compliance with the Code of Conduct Policy or other Company policies will be brought to the attention of the Audit Committee on a periodic basis, or more promptly if deemed appropriate by the Chair. The Audit Committee will convene, as appropriate, to review concerns and any impact on the Company's financial statements and public reports. Such meetings to review concerns will be held without Company or outside auditor personnel present unless requested by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall implement such corrective measures and do such things in an expeditious manner as it deems necessary or desirable to address the concern based upon the merits of the submission.

If the complaint does not involve Accounting Standards or compliance with the Code of Conduct, the complaint may be forwarded by the Chair of the Audit Committee to the Chair of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee or another committee of the Board of Directors to handle such complaint in a manner which he or she deems appropriate.

Where possible and when determined to be appropriate by the Audit Committee (or other committee of the Board of Directors, if applicable), notice of any such corrective measures will be given to the persons who submitted the concern.

Retention of Records

The Audit Committee shall retain records relating to any concern or report of a retaliatory act and to the investigation of any such report for a period judged to be appropriate based upon the merits of the submission. The types of records to be retained by the Audit Committee shall include records of all steps taken in connection with the investigation and the results of any such investigation.

Review of Policy
